

INVITATION AND GATHERING

WELCOME

CENTERING WORDS

The One who set the earth on its foundations is also the One who came as the servant of all. The One who spoke to Job from the whirlwind is also the One who walked and talked with James and John. God's love reaches through time and space to join us here.

Leader: Consider the great saints of the church: The greatest are those who gave themselves to serve others.

People: Jesus did not come to be served, but to serve. He is the example for all Christians.

Leader: Many Christians have great qualities. But true greatness is achieved only in self-sacrifice for the sake of others.

People: The church is Christ's servant in the world today. We pray that our sacrifice will make it great.

* LET US PRAY:

Heavenly Father, whose Son demonstrated greatness as the surrendering of self in service to others: Humble our feelings of self-exaltation; that we may become effective servants of our Lord Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.
